the rules...

ZERO
TOLERANCE
POLICY

- All mock exams and formal assessments are run in the same way as real exams and follow the exam regulations from the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ)
- Exam rooms are zero tolerance zones – all students MUST follow the rules
- Make sure you understand the rules – now is the time to ask questions if you are not sure
- Follow the instructions of the Exams Team and Invigilator(s) at all times

JCQ Rules

- All students should read and understand the JCQ 'Information for Candidates – Written Exams' document
- You should also watch the 5 minute Information For Candidates Video that explains the rules for written exams
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-U0gqU0SuAE>

All JCQ information and rules are available on the exams page of the website fullbrook.surrey.sch.uk/exams/ from your examination and your overall qualification.

This poster must be displayed in a prominent place outside each examination room.

Exam rules – continued

Calculators

- Are permitted in exams unless the paper states otherwise (i.e Non-calculator Maths and Computer Science papers)
- It is the student's responsibility to ensure that there are no pre-prepared programmes or data stored in the memory

Water Bottles (water ONLY)

- Students may bring a drink of water into the exam room. It must be in a clear, transparent, see-through bottle and free from all labels, writing and images.
- Water bottles with measurements are not permitted
- Sports cap bottles are recommended to avoid spillages

Malpractice

- In simplest terms 'malpractice' is a failure to follow the rules of an examination or assessment (including during production of NEA/coursework)
- All rules contained in the JCQ Information for Candidates documents must be adhered to
- Any breach of rules may constitute malpractice, which Fullbrook must report directly to the exam board
- Where exam boards find that malpractice has occurred they may impose one or more sanction(s) upon candidates

Possible Penalties for malpractice

- Formal warning from the exam board
(delivered by the Centre to the candidate)
- Loss of marks:
  - on a section/sections of an exam paper/component
  - for a whole component/paper/unit
- Disqualification from:
  - a unit/paper
  - whole qualification
  - from the exam series and all qualification within that series
- Candidate debarment from entering one or more qualifications for a set period of time
